Notes for Monta Lucile Nelson:

Monta "Skip" Lucille Russell, age 89, of Republic, Mo., passed away Sunday, February 13, 2011. She was born October 17, 1921, in Sardis, Okla., to Frank and Luda Belle Nelson. Monta was the eighth of 11 children.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Frank A. Nelson and Luda Belle Nelson; four brothers; and four sisters; a step-son, Gary Dean Russell. She is survived by her husband, Marvin "Rusty" Russell, Republic, Mo.; brother, Frank and his wife Harriet Nelson, Portland, Ore.; sister, Lola Holiday, of Hayfork, Calif.; five nieces, Deborah and L.R. Stewart, Springfield, Mo., Carol Steddum, of Eagle River, Alaska, Linda Reeves, of Tulsa, Okla., Diane Koch, of Columbia Falls, Montana, and Terrie Cravens, of Plano, Texas.

A life well lived full of adventure, traveling, enjoying family and friends. Some of her best times were spent motorcycling with the American Legion Riders of the Vietnam Post #639, until health prevented her from doing so. Skip was a wonderful wife, friend, and aunt, with a heart as big as all outdoors. She was loved dearly by all who knew her, and will be missed very much.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m., Thursday in Greenlawn Funeral Home North. Burial will follow in Greenlawn Memorial Gardens. Visitation will be held from 6 to 8 p.m., on Wednesday evening in the funeral home. Services have been entrusted to Greenlawn Funeral Home North, Springfield.

Notes for Truman Modglin:

FROM: Hal Horrocks, <http://genforum.com/modglin/messages/191.html>

Following is a theory, with documentation, that Truman Modglin and Anaper Burns we married August, 1783 in Chatham County North Carolina. This is a collaborating effort between three Modglin researchers. Truman's wife has been listed as "Mary Ann", with no maiden name, for a long time because of census and other records. One researcher has been steadfast in her contention that Truman's wife's name was Anaper Burns, daughter of John Burns Sr. However many researchers are

Thomas Simmons who was one of the pioneer settlers of Pope County, IL. Lewis Simmons went to Missouri when he was young, married in that state, and came from there to Illinois about 1836. He was a pioneer in Johnson County, secured Government land in Simpson Township. After leaving there, he settled in Grantsburg Township and lived there until his death. Lewis had four children: Sarah, Irving, Hezekiah and Rachel.

William and Rachael Modglin had four children. Their daughter, Nancy J. Modglin married W. J. Miller and had seven children; Sarah C., wife of A. D. Howell; Fanny B., wife of William B. Bivens; and Ida M. wife of Leonard Whitesides.

William served in Company A, 120th Illinois Infantry and was a prisoner of war held at Andersonville. He remained in captivity for ten months and was so starved when released that he could not stand alone.

Notes for Edith Modglin:

!Obituary - Census Record - Marriage License Newspaper clipping: Edith Modglin was born in Pope county, IL., Oct 27, 1840. She died in the same county within three miles of her birthplace, April 24, 1946, aged 75 years, 5 months and 27 days. At the age of 16 she was married to Samuel L. Belford, of this county. To this union were born 8 children, Mary Storm, Catheryn Corbit, Vinia Cosby, Amby Foreman and Milo, Kate, Charles, and Otto Belford, all of whom are living except Milo and Charles. She also had two step children, J. W. Belford and Louisa Duncan, the former of whom survives her, 22 grandchildren and 16 great- grand children also survive her. Her husband died January 5, 1894, leaving her a widow for 22 years. She professed faith in Christ in her home in 1895, was baptized and became a member of the United Baptist church. Since then her life has been one of righteousness and devotion and she believed in a religion that remained the same seven days in the week. She loved her neighbors, and her greatest happiness was in making others happy. There was not a child in her part of the county but knew and loved "Aunt Edie". She suffered for several years with asthma and other complaints, but bore all patiently and was always ready to joke or speak a cheery word. When the summons came to that mysterious shore, she was ready and willing to go. Her little corner of the world has truly been better for her having lived in it and she has now inherited a Crown of Life. "Blessed are the dead whom

Notes for Judy Elaine Ledbetter:

I am #5 out of six sibblings. Joan Ledbetter Mansur, Jequetta Sue Ledbetter Yanez, John Cole Ledbetter, Joel Charles Ledbetter, Judy Ledbetter McInnis, Jay Don Ledbetter. I live outside Tulsa, OK. Joel lives in Elkins Ark, the rest are all in Calif. My oldest sister Joan Mansur and her husband Darrell are doing some research on our family tree. The previous records we had (done in 1983) had very little of no information on the Kelly branch of our family. I would be glad to pass along what we have gathered. We have some old pictures I can share with you. Pearl Dareing Ledbetter (my granny) migrated to Southern California about 1952, and my parents followed about 1953. She helped to found a large Baptist church and was a traveling gospel singer when she was younger. I understand that two of her brothers (Montie and Ben I think ) were radio preachers, Montie out of Kansas City and not sure where Ben was. Pearl is buried in Miami, OK (1962) along with some of her siblings. The last I heard, Bertie is still alive and living in Miami, but she had remarried and we do not know her last name. We as children (after the move to Calif) did not have much contact with the Dareings. I remember my granny talking about her family, I have some very old coffee mugs and saucers and Joan remembers alot also. joan was taught from Granny some of the old past-times needlework and childrens games Granny was taught from her grandparents.

Notes for Donald Ray Leonard:

After retiring this year, Secret Service agent Donald Ray Leonard planned to travel and play more golf with his sons.

Leonard, 51, enjoyed sailing, fishing and golf. He also loved his career in law enforcement.

During his 20 years with the Secret Service, Leonard was responsible for protecting seven U.S. presidents and various political candidates and dignitaries. He received numerous awards for his service.

He was a member of the National Native American Law Enforcement Officers Association and a supporter of the Oklahoma Zoological Society, the Cowboy Hall of Fame and Native American Movement.

He and his wife, Diane, have three sons, Brad, Jason and Tim.

Notes for Chloe Dean Cox:

We moved from the farm on January 1, 1962, and she never ever lived with us in that house in town. Just a couple of months or so after we moved to town, Sarah brought Mike and Gary over and dumped them off so Mother had her hands full with trying to get everything settled and take care of a three year old and a one year old. That summer Chloe Dean would walk over (they lived just up the street where Burke Lennington now has his auto repair shop) and help with the boys. My mother's health wasn't very good so she was a big help. She was pregnant with Clark and by the end of summer almost didn't have a lap to rock Gary to sleep. He was then born on December 10, 1962. If he had been born Dec 1963, as is listed, that would have made him only 4 months older than Kent, April, 1964. Hey, I know she could do pretty much everything she set her mind to, but even she couldn't pull something like that off! haha!
